UIII Admission Official Guideline

for Indonesian and International Students

Universitas Islam Internasional Indonesia (UIII), or Indonesian International Islamic University (IIIU), is a newly established graduate institution specifically designed to produce exceptional scholars developing the boundaries of knowledge for the benefit of humankind. Our curriculum and learning process is prepared to optimize critical and creative skills, nurtured and supervised by renowned international faculty members. UIII graduates are expected to contribute significantly to their society and emerge as dynamic global leaders capable of bringing about a positive change in society and inspiring others.

UIII currently provides 4 (four) faculties and offers academic programs at Master's (MA) and Doctoral (Ph.D.) levels. The university also has various research centers with specific research agendas responding to strategic issues and challenges related to Muslim societies worldwide.

UIII is inviting high-caliber individuals who demonstrate academic excellence, present excellent co-curricular activities records, and exhibit outstanding leadership qualities to apply to our university. UIII offers financial aid for selected applicants to give them the opportunity to pursue a graduate education of their choice at UIII. The scholarships will be awarded to outstanding and emerging young leaders from all over the world who have these leadership qualities and a solid academic background to pursue Master's (MA) and Doctoral (Ph.D.) degrees.

Every applicant has a right to equal treatment without discrimination. UIII upholds the highest standards of fairness and places the highest value upon ideals of scholarly responsibility. Minorities, women, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. What matters is your ability to submit a strong application that demonstrates you are capable of excelling in a robust Master's (MA) and Doctoral (Ph.D.) programs at UIII and that you have a clear vision for your future.

There will be 3 main application processes:

Administrative Selection

At this stage, UIII will review the completion of all the documents submitted. UIII Selection Committee will only process applicants who have submitted all required documents.

Desk Review

At this stage, all application documents will be substantively reviewed by the Selection Committee for shortlisting. The relevance and strength of the applicant's background will be assessed. Desk review will result in applicant shortlisting. Applicants shortlisted for selection interview(s) will be informed via email.

Interview

Applicants will be assessed on their suitability for the admissions based on the strength of their applications and their performance in the selection interview(s). An interview is a great opportunity for applicants to demonstrate their competences and leadership as well as academic qualifications. The panel consists of the relevant faculty members who will assess your competency, experience, and prospect. Applicants will be asked a series of questions discussing some of the information in the application form. In addition, the panel will ask questions that will enable applicants to explain their personal and professional aspirations and how UIII can facilitate their achievement of these goals. The interviews will be conducted online via Zoom Cloud Meetings.

Shortlisted candidates will be informed in their invitation email for an interview. Please ensure that you are available to attend the interviews to be considered for admission. Your application will be withdrawn if you are unable to attend any scheduled selection interview(s) without a valid reason

Deadline

The online application submission is open throughout the year. For 2024/2025 academic intake, applications must be submitted no later than:

May 3, 2024

Applicants will be notified of the application results via university e-mail

Selection Decision

The decision of the selection committee is final.
Enquiries or disputes surrounding its decisions will not be entertained.

Referee

References are crucial for the selection process. Applicants must provide two references (letters of recommendation) when they submit their application. Please make sure that the referee's email address you provide is correct and that the referee confirms by email to admissions@uiii.ac.id before the due date. Please note that the referees must respond to the email one week after receiving this notification in order for us to consider your application. UIII will contact the applicant's referees for the confirmation and submission of the letter of recommendation.

Who can be your referee?

Please select your referees wisely. They should be people who can comment on your general suitability. Referees should be known to you, either in an academic or professional capacity. When approaching your referees, please direct them to the guidance section below as it contains important information about what they should include in their reference.

Instructions for your referees

It is vital to provide as much relevant detail as possible to support the applicant. References must be written in English. Following are the points that should be covered by the referee:

1. Your contact details: address, email address, and phone number (mobile).
2. How long have you known the applicant?
3. In what capacity do you know the applicant? (e.g., professional, educational, supervisory, voluntary, religious, etc.)
4. When did you last have regular contact with the applicant?
5. A brief overall endorsement of the applicant, including their:
 - Intellectual, academic and professional competence.
 - Personal and interpersonal qualities.
 - Skills in leadership and networking.
 - Ability to complete a demanding academic program at UIII

Application Fee

Upon submission of an application, applicants will be prompted to pay the application fee (IDR Rp 750.000 or USD $50 for all programs). The application fee must be paid to UIII bank account at the time the application is submitted and is non-refundable. Applicants will be notified through e-mail on the payment procedure of the application fee.

Application Fee Waiver

1. When you apply for admission to UIII you might be eligible for an application fee waiver based on the information requested in the application.
2. You must fully complete the application before the application fee waiver eligibility is determined.
3. You will receive notification via e-mail or please see a "Check My Application Fee Waiver Status" link sent to you to determine whether you are eligible for an application fee waiver.
4. This application fee waiver will be given only to applicants who demonstrate financial need and meet certain requirements.
5. Under current fee waiver regulations at UIII, we may only approve fee waivers based on our reviews of your demonstrated inability to pay.
6. Approved waivers are not transferrable to a future or past application term.
7. Kindly note that you must upload your Application Fee Waiver Form in its intended document submission field.
